DOMESTIC CONCERNS.

Keep salad, lettuce, endive, celery, etc., in ice-cold water after preparing it for the table until you are ready to serve it.

Water Crackers: One pound four, one teaspoonful of soda, one tablespoonful of lard. Mix with sweet milk, beat well, roll out thinly, and bake in a quick oven.

Water Buns: Roll four good-sized potatoes, mash and add through a sieve add one and one-half pint of flour, two teaspoonful of baking powder, one pint of cream or milk, form in small cakes and bake in a greased tin.

Jewelry can be beautifully cleaned by washing in soap-suds, in which a few drops of spirits of ammonia are added, shaking off the water and laying in a box of dry sawdust. This method leaves no marks or scratches.

Cocunut Charlotte Russer: One-half pound of dedicated cocoanut, soaked in hot milk, one hour; wash the pulp and strain it; dissolve in the milk one teaspoonful of gelatin, beat one pint of cream until stiff, and add to the gelatin and cocoanut which it becomes cold; also five tablespoonfuls of sugar, turn into molds lined with sponge-cake and set away until perfectly cold.

Early Cabbage: Cut a firm head of summer cabbage in slices, put in a saucepan with boiling water, let boil fifteen minutes, drain off the water, and make a dressing of half a pint of vinegar, an ounce of sugar, a teaspoonful of salt, a pinch of cayenne pepper, a teaspoon of mustard and one tablespoon of oil; mix all together, and pour over the cabbage, and one bunch of celery, mix the cabbage, in the hot dressing and boil five minutes.

Ladies' Home Journal.

Spiced Eggs: These are good either hot or cold. Cook one-third cupful of brown sugar in one-third cupful of milk until it is a paste, then mix with one cupful of chopped ham, one-half teaspoonful of mixed mustard, a little cayenne and one raw egg; cover six large buttered eggs with this mixture; let it bake smooth and nice, wash with brandy and serve in hot fat minutes.

Lilies of the valley are favorite flowers with all, and a good bed of them is a higher desire in any decorative garden. To get the best of them they should be planted out where they are to remain for some years, as they are very impatient of transplanting.
The ground should be finely tilled and a portion of the best mold well spaded in before the plants are set in the bed prepared for them. Christian at Work.

Rice Cream: Boil two ounces of rice in a quart of water for five minutes.
Strain and add milk and sugar in a quantity of milk. Rub the rice through a sieve in a pulp, and add to it any milk not absorbed in the boiling; half an ounce of gelatin to a pint of the rice and milk. The gelatin can be soaked in cold water, and dissolved either in milk or water.
Stir over the fire until mixed, sweeten and flavor to taste. Stir the cream occasionally until cold, lightly mix the whites of two eggs beaten to a strong foam at the point of setting put it into mold. Good Housekeeping.

DOCTORING THE BLOOD.

Some excellent and timely advice on authority of a noted subject.

Few outcrops are more common among the alling than that their blood is impure and needs doctoring. Hence the numberless domestic dosings, especially in spring. This notion is a misanthropic to quicken not nostrum vendors, but the cry never fails of a ready response from scores of thousands.

It is true the blood is liable to many disordered conditions, some of them of the gravest character. But such conditions are not to be safely tampered with by quacks. When blood-letting was in vogue, the patient looked with satisfaction at dark blood in the bowl; its color was proof to him of its impurity. He little considered that venous blood is always dark, and that if the doctor had let him bleed to death, the last drop would have been of the same color.

No doubt there is often an impure condition of the blood which some simple remedy may, in part, correct.
Nutritive accretions may give rise to more nutritive material in the blood, eliminating organs to their effort to get rid of it become overworked and exhausted, and thus fail to perform even their normal functions.

The liver is congested; the poisoned brain elaborates nervous force for the machinery of the system; the mind becomes dull, and the appetite fails. In such a condition of things, a cathartic frequently works wonders, especially if followed by a partial fast for a day or two. But in many cases where it would have been to avoid this wretched "biliousness" by a proper course of diet.

"Biliousness," so-called, is especially common in spring, the trouble being that people still continue to eat as much as they did in the winter, and of winter food. The relaxing weather would do us no harm if we would gradually our food accordingly. Indeed, the inspiring influences of the season would give a new impulse to health and spirits.

Constipation is another source of impurity in the blood, poisonous waste elements being reabsorbed into the circulation. Where it exists it must be removed. But hardly any thing can be done than to induce perspiration, and to eat light and nutritious food. In the last year or two, three members of the staff have gone, one by one, to swell the staff of another great hospital daily, and all three are sons of elegyman. All of these nine men are of good repute, and are all the more proud that they are able to rid the system of such a frequently fatal, but now rapidly falling ill disease. Boston Advertiser.

IT SNAKE STRANGE.

It seems strange that anyone will make a use of quinine and take their chances of suffering from such distress as fullness of the head, headache, dizziness, nausea, etc., when all the good effects of quinine are secured by a use of that harmless discovery of Dr. John Jull, of Louisville, Ky., known as Smith's Tonic Syrup. No harmful effect ever follows the use of syrup, and it is never yet failed to cure a case of chills and fever, even when quinine and other preparations did no good. It is well also to take it else after any severe exposure as it will keep off as well as cure a cold.

Not on Ice.

Husband--Are there any oysters in the house?
Wife--Only two, and you can't have them.
Husband--Why?
Wife--Johnnie's been in a street fight, and they are on his eyes-- Ejacks.

Drunkness--Liquor Habit--In all the World there is but One Cure, Dr.
Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be taken in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe their quinine drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence, GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Smith's Tonic Syrup is the best medicine for ague and malaria. Those who are pale and emaciated from chills and fever and loss of appetite should try it. You will do suffering humanity a great favor by publishing poisoned it must be purified to avoid death. Dr. Acker's English Blood Purifier has never failed to remove acridities, rheumatism, skin diseases, and all other blood poisons. Sold under a positive guarantee.

CUSTOM-MADE TOWELS.

An Argument Showing That the Best is the Cheapest in the End.

While it may seem like a slight extra-charge to the economical housewife to pay $15 for a single dress there is, nevertheless, a feature about such an investment that is of more than compensating importance. A linen handkerchief does not last any longer than one of cotton or cotton, but there is a delicious sense of refinement about one that a cotton handkerchief can never approach.
And so with the custom-made towel. It may be a simple $15.25 a yard customer, but properly cut and prettily made it is infinitely preferable to the garish hatched towel turned out by the ignorant silly tailor. It tells for itself. It forty lies and wastes forty hours of "fret" and broken engagements. It only charges $12 or $14 for her work, which is 50 per cent. less than an article will ask and the ruin of material, temper and future comfort.

Any woman who can make a dress is entitled to $15, provided it is made right and gives satisfaction. In such a case it is not only cheap, but a positive luxury. It gives a customer grace, ease, comfort and service. It puts her at her best. There is about a well-made custom-made towel a feeling that comes from intelligence and is wholly lacking in a hill-miss fit. You can't tell a new article from an old one. It is fresh, bright, pleasing and ultra, but not now for the reason that fine trimmings are used. The linings have been made of the best material, and the whole thing is a masterpiece of craftsmanship. It is the case with towels and the cloth-lined pocket and the faint smell of lavender, or any other that is not a characteristic of cheap luxury.

The thing is, after all, as broad as it is long. By close buying a dress-pattern can be had for $10. The findings will cost $3, which, with $3 for making by an artist, will bring the total to $16.
This means the very perfection of fit, quiet, lady-like style and a costume that may be worn six months, without interruption, if necessary. (While it leaves the owner, has no satisfaction of knowing and feeling that she is dressed like a lady. On the other hand the customer being ill-advised pays $30 for some alleged importation and $30 for linings, threads, etc. The dressmaker hastily chops into the cloth and finds herself limited, demands a buckle, some passementerie and a bolt of ribbon to finish off and cover up her blunder. By the time it is finished the bill of expenses amounts to $10, at the very lowest estimate. The dress is a failure; it is badly and feels worse, and not a penny's worth of comfort remains for the Witch of Endor figure you cut or the hours wasted in going to and from the cloth-butchers.

Better a hundred times put your money in a correct fit than the ever-fading glittering of passementerie and cut-glass buckles and spangles. N. Y.
World.

The best thing of which to make roller are more satisfactory for roller towels than any other crash I know, and are so much easier that the conscience feels less compunction at pulling slightly soiled towels into the wash for frequent

THE REWARD OF VIRTUE--VISITOR.

Understand that you are going to stop publishing the Sunday edition of your paper on purely religious grounds?
Clark--Yes, sir, we are.

Visitor--Can I see the editor or business manager a moment?

Clark--No, sir, they have just stepped out to get measured for halos.
Judge.

girls will know that new towels in winter make dirty work. Not is this at variance with the advice to buy in the winter. Buy and freeze, and then wait for summer to continue the necessary softening process.

One thing more: All know how very disagreeable new dish-towels are.
Well, don't have 'em! Go to the supply of roller-towels, select some of the oldest, best-softened ones, cut them in two, and hem at both ends. The dish-towels are thus never new, and the ample replenishing of roller-towels will make it all right. Does some one suggest that this is not a clean way to do?
Then use more soap, water and boiling when you wash your roller-towels, and it will do.

Is there any use for other towels that have developed very thin "middles" and lost most of their fringe? If one has time to devote to such saving work, or if there are little girls in the family, who need employment, my advice is to cut the towels down the center, lengthwise, and "cover and cover" the edges together. This gives a firm "middle" good enough to cut square wash-cloths from, for those who like such, or to use for any other purpose for which soft, old linen can be used.

Always have towels of linen. Do not be tempted into trying the cheaper cotton, which is very costly to tear and strength, as it leaves a disagreeable flat behind it, in gentle protest. Once I was beguiled into it, and the experience now serves to put greater warmth into my advice.

One word about "hemstitch" towels and I am done. Have them better than the family towels. If you please, but be sure to let the family take the "new" off. This may be hard on the family, but the wiping cloth will last longer, and leave behind a blessing instead of a reproach. Chicago Inter Ocean.

Quickly Arranged.

Old Million--Want? Want to marry my daughter? Why, the child is hardly out of school dresses yet. She needs a mother's care as much as ever, sir.

Young Portham--Oh, that's all right.
I'll live here--Life.

"It is a member of Congress," remarked the new arrival, as he placed his name on the register of the Slavia House, at Tombstone City.

"You needn't be afraid," replied the clerk, "I won't tell any of the boys; you'll be perfectly safe as long as you behave yourself."--The Jury.

Here are some interesting criminal statistics for the last ten years 673 persons were committed for trial in England and Wales for the crime of willful murder. Of these 290 were sentenced to death, 251 acquitted, and 143 adjudged insane. Of the 292 condemned to death 154 were executed and 145 had commu-tations of sentence, of the 292 city were women, of whom nine were hanged.

One cause assigned for the healthiness of Chinese cities is, that the people boil all water intended for drinking. They never drink cold water. The national beverage, tea, is always "on tap," even in the houses of the poor.
Every little hamlet, too, has a shop where hot water can be bought for a trifling sum at any hour of the day or night.

Saves Your Certificates.

Part of section 14, Registration Law: "At the said election no vote shall be received unless the person offering to vote is on the registry provided in this act, and if his vote be challenged by an officer of the election, or by a bystander, unless he exhibit to the officers of the election the certificate of registration issued to him in accordance with the requirements of section twelve and thirteen of this act. Provided, however, that any person whose name is properly recorded on the registry provided by this act, and who has lost his certificate of registration, shall be allowed to vote after he shall have been sworn by one of the judges of the election and shall have stated under oath that he has lost said certificate of registration and that said certificate has not passed into the hands of another person with his knowledge or consent."

So far as the KENTUCKIAN is concerned the campaign is closed. The next issue will convey to the people the news of victory or defeat. Unless the indications are misleading and unless we underestimate the no standing of a majority of the voters of Christian county, the "Big Four" ticket is doomed to defeat. A majority of the people may go on record as endorsing dishonesty in its most deplorable form, but we will not believe it until it is done. If honesty is to prevail, if corruption is to be condemned, if the most audacious gang of criminals ever permitted to run at large are to be convicted or driven out of the county, if the people are to be a step nearer to the work to be done by the next grand jury and if the standing of Christian county as a law-abiding community is to be maintained, then honest men must be elected next Monday.

More than one colored man from Christian county, who was driven by actual want to steal something to eat, is now serving a term in the State prison, and yet their crimes are the essence of purity compared to the systematic stealing that prevailed in the sheriff's office during the recent season of corruption. The thief who can sit down at a table with a cool head, a steady nerve and a guilty conscience and deliberately rob and pilfer from widows, orphans, poor and needy old men and even from the dead, is the meanest and most infamous thief who ever disgraced a law-abiding community with his sly presence.

The indications point to the election of Dr. Clardy, the Farmer's candidate for Delegate, by an overwhelming majority. He has made a splendid canvass, going to every district in the county and his excellent speeches have gained him new supporters for him wherever he has been. In him the county will have an able and creditable Delegate and the agricultural interests of the whole State will have an intelligent, well-informed champion, who is not only a good farmer but a careful and safe business man.

Judges of election should satisfy themselves in every case that the voter presenting a certificate is the same one who registered. It is known that frauds will be attempted by putting the certificates of dead men or those who have gone away into the hands of floaters with the view of voting them for the Republican ticket. Watch every point all day long. Eternal vigilance is the price of victory.

If any man in Christian county looking after people's money in trust records his vote for Boyd next Monday, his accounts should at once be investigated. There is something radically wrong with the moral character of any man who undertakes such conduct as the Republican party is trying to defend.

County officers more closely consider the people than any other of local positions. Local officers have to deal with the people direct and for this reason such officials should be chosen from the best and most capable men. Whoever in any county the dominant party becomes so corrupt that had men control its councils and improper nominees are placed upon tickets that are supposed to be backed by invincible majorities, the time has come for a revolt and honest men should look more to public interest than party success. Such a state of affairs now exists in Christian county and the Republican party has put out a county ticket that represents something that is good and commendable in the party. Personal criticism might be freely indulged in and some weighty objections raised against the nominees, but this is not a campaign of personalities. Far more important issues command the attention of the tax-payers of the county and upon the great question of honesty and official integrity against flagrant corruption and systematized robbery in the sheriff's office, the case now goes to the jury, made up of the voters of Christian county. It is a time for men of integrity and reputable characters to stand together and see that the stigma of electing a ticket stamped with fraud is not placed upon the county. The triumph of such an element would be a blow to the prosperity of the county that would be felt for years. Immigration would be repelled, capital would be driven out and decent people would feel like leaving the county.

Mr. Van Pelt, Editor of the Craig, Mo., Meteor, went to a drug store at Hillsdale, Iowa, and asked the physician in attendance to give him a dose of something for cholera morbus and looseness of the bowels. He says: "I felt so much better the next morning that I concluded to call on the physician and get him to fix me up a supply of the medicine. I was surprised when he handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He said he prescribed it regularly in his practice and found it the best he could get or prepare. I can testify to its efficiency in my case at all events." For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Interest in the Boyd defalcation continues unabated throughout the State. The papers of other cities are watching all of the developments and the Courier-Journal has this reference to the work of the local papers: "The Hopkinsville News Era and the Kentucky are doing, in the exposure of the corrupt officials of Christian county, some of the best work that has ever been done out of the State press."

Cholera in infantum has lost its terrors since the introduction of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. When that remedy is used and treatment as directed with each bottle is followed, a cure is certain. Mr. A. W. Walter, a prominent merchant at Waltersburg, Ill., says: "I reared my baby boy of cholera infantum after several other remedies had failed. The child was so low that he seemed almost beyond the aid of human hands or reach of any medicine." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavell.

The usual weekly meetings to influence the prejudices of the colored voters are now being held by the Republican candidates and their supporters. These meetings are addressed by the most malignant partisans and all sorts of campaign lies are told to influence the votes of the ignorant and prejudiced masses of the party. The gang finds itself in very desperate straits.

A carpenter by the name of M. S. Powers, fell from the roof of a house in East Des Moines, Iowa, and sustained a painful and serious sprain of the wrist, which he cured with one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says it is worth $5 a bottle. It cost him 50 cents. For sale by Buckner Leavell.

Wherever Moses West has laid the details of the fraud before the people in his plain, forcible way, he has gained votes from honest men. He deals in no abuse, but presents the facts backed by evidence that is conclusive to any sensible man that his opponent is unfit to be sheriff.

Excitement is running very high over the election, but there should be no trouble and if soberness prevails there will be none. Of course the saloons should be closed Monday and all deadly weapons left at home. Politics, pizen and pistols make a bad combination and should not be mixed up upon occasions when men's passions are running high.

The Republican tricksters are determined to rain Boyd and his allies down the throats of the honest element of the party and show to the world that the party committee acted authoritatively when it endorsed John Boyd as just the man the party wanted to be sheriff of Christian county.

What is the most characteristic thing you have found in our American life? The girl back and forth, the girl who has been spending a few months in New York. "The girl back and forth," he said. "There are no splinters here, as we called them in England. The unmarried woman in America is a type altogether unique. She has all the independence of a man, and still keeps every essential trait of the best woman. She thinks and plans and executes for herself, and she does not seem to make mistakes. The girl back and forth has her own house, and she values it exactly as she would if she were married. She is always gracious and companionable, but her overtures are not to be mistaken. The girl back and forth is the most wonderful thing America has yet produced, and she is altogether charming."—N. Y. Sun.

The Closing Speeches.

The Democratic candidates are now in North Christian and have been since Tuesday making their last speeches before the election. They have made this return visit to tell the white voters, what the Republican candidates had to say to their colored brethren, in South Christian. This is a kind of campaign the Big Four does not relish and on Tuesday most of the Boyd ticket flew the track and broke for the night meetings of South Christian, leaving their Democratic opponents to finish their appointments alone in the extreme northern districts this week and two more to day and to-morrow will complete the list, with the exception of the final joint powwow and hurrah at the Court House to-morrow night. This meeting will be of course a mere test of wing power on the part of the respective sides and will not change a vote either way. In fact the people have already made up their minds how they will vote and we believe a large majority of them will vote against the ticket that represents all that should be condemned by good citizens, regardless of party.
